

For a fun, fascinating GEOLOGICAL experience for all the family, come along to the

Cambridgeshire
County Council

Cambridgeshire Environmental Education Service

Rock Festival

on Saturday 14 March from 10am until 4pm at

CEES Upware Centre near Ely and

CEES Stibbington Centre near Peterborough

- Investigate our collections of rocks, minerals, fossils and aggregates
- Take a closer look using microscopes and visualisers
- Try rocky crafts, including pebble painting, rock gardens and clay tiles
- Be a geological detective, take the rock quiz challenge, make your own fossil rubbing, taste rock cooking, follow a rock treasure trail, and more

Plus at Upware Centre – CB7 5ZR:

- Follow a geological time line back to the Pre-Cambrian era
- Hunt for fossils at the South Pit nature reserve

And at Stibbington Centre – PE8 6LP:

- Test your climbing skills on a rock climbing wall
- Find the dinosaurs in the Geological Time Tunnel
- Watch gold panning and volcanic eruption demonstrations

Admission: £3 per adult, £2 concessions, max £10 per family

For details tel 01780 782386 or visit www.cees.org.uk

Supported through Defra's
Aggregates Levy Sustainability Fund

Stibbington Centre
Greener Future Trust
Reg charity no 1097019

Stamford
District
Geological
Society

