

Visitors are invited to come along to Stibbington Centre's

Home Front Festival

on Saturday 8 November
from 10am to 4pm

Step back in time to the early 1940s
at our World War II themed Open Day

- Collect your replica ID card
- Spend your coupons
- Try 1940s toys & games
- Visit Lyons Corner House
- Look at vintage vehicles
- Handle bygone artefacts
- Take cover in an Anderson shelter
- Try out wartime handicrafts
- Sample lessons in the evacuees' classroom
- Listen to a message from Princess Elizabeth
- Test your knowledge with a Home Front Quiz
- Listen to wartime songs sung by groups of school children – and join in with them too!

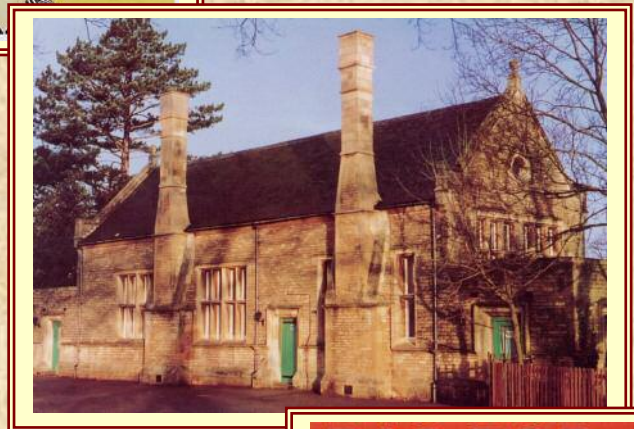

ADMISSION:

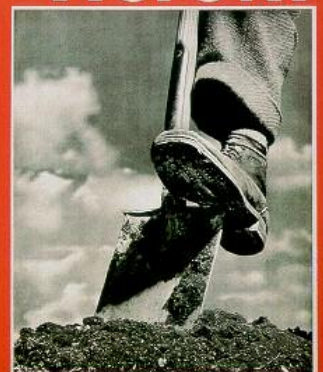

Adults £3

Children £2

Free entry to everyone born before the end of World War II!

DIG FOR VICTORY

Stibbington Centre is part of Cambridgeshire County Council's Environmental Education Service. For details visit www.cees.org.uk.

The Home Front Festival Open Day is being coordinated by Stibbington Centre's Charitable Trust, registered charity number 1097019. Proceeds from the event will help the Trust to improve the Centre's facilities.

Our Home Front Festival is being held on Remembrance weekend 2008, on the 90th anniversary of the first Armistice Day in 1918.